Summary

I'm an aspiring frontend developer who loves to code.

I'm proficient at C++ and well familiar with React.js, JavaScript, CSS3, and HTML5.

Recently I have created an E-commerce clothing store with React.js and integrated it with stripe payments and also used firebase database for google authentication and sign in.

Over a year I have gained a good knowledge of data structures in C++.

I'm actively looking for internship opportunities to work as a web developer.
